Massachusetts Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

2010 Advanced Post-Conviction Litigation Skills Seminar

Co-Sponsored by CPCS and Westlaw • Hosted by WilmerHale

Friday, June 18, 2010 • 10:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

This tremendously popular continuing legal education program will address selected problems faced by post-conviction counsel in the Massachusetts and federal courts. Although the topics will be addressed at the advanced level, this is a great seminar for both new and experienced trial and post-conviction counsel.

This year's topics will include:

- ◆ The State of Criminal Defense in Massachusetts
- ◆ Courtroom Closures
- ◆ The Mubdi Decision – Clearing a Fourth Amendment/Article Fourteen Logjam
- ◆ The Impact of Learning Disabilities and Adolescent Brain Development on Confessions and Statements to the Police
- ◆ Recent Developments in Mental Health Competency
- ◆ Reciprocal Discovery in Insanity Cases
- ◆ Fact Development/Criminal Discovery Using Social Media
- ◆ Testimony from Federal Special Officers
- ◆ Implementation of DiGiambattista – Use of Recorded Interrogations by Prosecutors
- ◆ Prosecutorial Misconduct in Closing Arguments
- ◆ Federal Sentencing Enhancements
- ◆ Legislative Developments in Sentencing Reform
- ◆ Consequences Relating to Immigration
- ◆ Transcript Availability and Motions for New Trial Due to Missing Transcripts
- ◆ Advanced Legal Research with WestlawNext
- ◆ Gorilla Brief Writing Tactics: How to Condense Your 65 Page Brief into 50 Pages
- ◆ How Criminal Lawyers Can More Effectively Use Their Laptops
- ◆ How Criminal Lawyers Get Into Trouble at the BBO
